

Is it ethical today not to prescribe physical exercise in the gynaecology oncology consultation?

Nowadays there is an incremental number of papers which aims

Exercise in endometrial cancer is crucial in different aspects, starting with prevention

Reduces Mortality

Better quality of life

In most cases, avoid surgery